Rot. Parl. 14 C. II. p. 1. nu. 4. AN ACT for the Uniformity of Publique Prayers and Administra^on of Sacraments & other Rites & Ceremonies and for establishing the Form of making ordaining and consecrating Bishops Preists and Deacons in the Church of England.

Recital that in the First Year of Queen Eliz. there was one uniform Order of Church Service compiled; and enjoined to be used by 1 Eliz. c. 2.

that many Persons nevertheless refuse to come to their Parish Church ;

that by the Neglect of Ministers many Persons have been led into Schism ;

that His Majesty, according to His Declaration of 25th Oct. 1660, had granted a Commission to review the Book of Common Prayer, and that the Convocations were assembled for that Purpose ;

that they had presented to His Majesty a Book of Common Prayer, which he had allowed and recommended to Parliament that the same should be used in all Churches, &c. ;

that an universal Agreement in public Worship conduceth to settling the Peace of the Nation ;

WHEREAS in the first yeare of the late Queene Elizabeth there was one uniforme Order of Cōmon Service and Prayer and of the Administration of Sacraments Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England (agreeable to the Word of God and usage of the Primitive Church) compiled by the Reverend Bishoppes and Clergy set forth in one Booke entituled The Booke of Cōmon Prayer and Administration of Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies in the Church of England and enjoined to be used by Act of Parliamt holden in the said First yeare of the said late Queene entituled An Act for the Uniformity of Cōmon Prayer and Service in the Church and Administration of the Sacraments very comfortable to all good people desirous to live in Christian conversation and most profitable to the Estate of this Realme upon the which the Mercy Favour and Blessing of Almighty God is in no wise so readily and plentifully poured as by Cōmon Prayers due useing of the Sacraments and often preaching of the Gospell with Devotion of the Hearers And yet this notwithstanding a great number of people in divers parts of this Realm following theire owne sensualitie and liveing without knowledge and due feare of God do willfully and schismatically abstaine and refuse to come to theire Parish Churches and other Publique places where Cōmon Prayer Administra^on of the Sacraments and preaching of the Word of God is used upon the Sundayes and other dayes ordained & appointed to be kept and observed as Holy dayes And whereas by the great and scandalous neglect of Ministers in using the said Order or Liturgy so set forth and enjoined as aforesaid great mischeifs & inconveniencies during the times of the late unhappy troubles have arisen and growen and many people have beene led into Factions and Schismes to the great decay and scandall of the Reformed Religion of the Church of England and to the hazard of many souls [For prevention whereof in time to come for settling the Peace of the Church and for allaying the present distempers which the indisposi^on of the time hath contracted The Kings Majestie according to His Declaration of the Five and twentieth of Octo^r One thousand six hundred and sixty granted His Cōmission under the great Seale of England to severall Bishops and other Divines to [re']view the Booke of Cōmon Prayer and to prepare such Alterations and Additions as they thought fitt to offer And afterwards the Convocations of both the Provinces of Canterbury and Yorke being by His Majesty called and assembled and now sitting His Majestie hath beene pleased to authorize and require the Presidents of the said Convocations and other the Bishoppes and Clergy of the same to reveiw the said Booke of Cōmon Prayer and the Booke of the Forme and manner of the making and consecrating of Bishops Preists and Deacons And that after mature considera^on they should make such Additions and Alterations in the said Bookes respectively as to them should seeme meet and convenient and should exhibit and present the same to His Majesty in writing for his further allowance or confirmation since which time upon full and mature deliberation they the said President^e Bishops and Clergy of both Provinces have accordingly reviewed the said Bookes and have made some Alterations which they thinke fitt to be inserted to the same and some additionall Prayers to the said Booke of Cōmon Prayer to be used upon proper and emergent occasions And have exhibited and presented the same unto His Majestie in writing in one Booke entituled The Booke of Cōmon Prayer and Administration of the Sacraments and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church according to the use of the Church of England together with the Psalter or Psalmes of David pointed as they are to be sung or said in Churches and [the'] forme and manner of making ordaining and consecrating of Bishoppes Preists and Deacons All which His Majesty haveing duly considered hath fully approved and allowed the same and recōmended to this p^rsent Parliamt that the said Bookes of Cōmon Prayer and of the forme of Ordination and Consecration of Bishops Preists and Deacons with the Alterations and Additions which have beene soe made and p^rsented to his Majesty by the said Convocations be the Booke which shall be appointed to be used by all that officiate in all Cathedrall and Collegiate Churches and Chappells and in all Chappells of Colledges and Halls in both the Universities and the Colledges of Eaton and Winchester and in all Parish Churches and Chappells within the Kingdome of England Dominion of Wales and Towne of Berwick upon Tweed and by all that make or consecrate Bishops Preists or Deacons in any of the said places under such San^ctions and Penalties as the Houses of Parliamt shall thinke fitt.²] Now in regard that nothing conduceth more to the settling of the Peace of this Nation (which is desired of all good men) nor to the honour of our Religion and the propagation thereof then an universall agreement in the Publique Worshipp of Almighty God and to the intent that every person within this Realme may certainly

O. nu. 8.

AN ACT for the reversing the Earle of Strafford his Attainder (¹)

The Reasons and Grounds of repealing
the Attainder.

WHEREAS Thomas late Earle of Strafford was impeached of High Treason upon pretence of endeavoring to subvert the fundamentall Lawes and called to a publique and solemne Arraignment and Tryall before the Peeres in Parliament where hee made a particular defence to every article objected against him in so much that the turbulent Partie then seeinge noe hopes to effect their unjust designes by any ordinary way and method of proceedings did att last resolve to attempt the destrucōn and attainder of the said Earle by an Act of Parliament to bee therefore purposely made to condemne him upon accumulative Treason none of the pretended Crimes being Treason apart and soe could not bee in the whole if they had beene proved as they were not and alsoe adjudged him guilty of constructive Treason (that is) of levying Warr against the King though it was only the cōmanding an Order of the Councell Board in Ireland to be executed, by a Serjant att Armes and three or foure Souldiers which was the constant Practice of the Deputies there for a long tyme ; to which end they haveing first presented a Bill for this intent to the House of Cōmons and finding there more opposition then they expected, they caused a multitude of tumultuous Persons to come downe to Westminster, armed with Swords and Staves and to fill both the Pallace Yards, and all the approches to both Houses of Parliament with fury and clamo^r and to require justice speedy justice against the Earle of Strafford. And haveing by these and other undue practises obtayned that Bill to passe in the House of Cōmons, they caused the names of those resolute Gentlemen who in a case of inocent Bloud, had freely discharged their consciences, being nine and fiftie to bee posted up in severall places about the Cities of London and Westminster, and stiled them Straffordians and Enemies to their Country, hoping thereby to deliver them up to the fury of the people, whom they had endeavoured to incense against them, and then procured the said Bill to bee sent up to the House of Peeres where it haveing sometyme rested under great deliberaōn, att last in a tyme when a greate parte of the Peeres were absent by reason of the tumults, and many of those who were present protested against it, the said Bill passed in the House of Peeres, And at length his late Majestie Kinge Charles the First of Glorious Memory granted a Cōmission for giving his Royall Assent thereunto which neverthesse was done by his said Majestie with exceeding greate sorrowe then, and ever remembred by him with unexpressable Greife of Hart, and out of his Majesties greate Piety hee did publicquely expresse it when his owne Sacred Life was taken away by the most detestable Traytors that ever were ; For all which causes bee it declared and enacted by the Kings most excellent Majestie by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall and Cōmons in this present Parliament assembled, That the Act entituled An Act for the Attainder of Thomas Earle of Strafford of High Treason, and all and every Clause Article and Thing therein conteyned being obteyned as aforesaid, is now hereby repealed revoked and reversed.

II.

AND to the end that right bee done to the memory of the deceased Earle of Strafford aforesaid bee it further enacted That all Records and Proceedings of Parlyament relating to the said Attainder bee wholly cancelled and taken of the Fyle, or otherwayes defaced and obliterated, to the intent the same may not bee visible in after ages, or brought into example to the prejudice of any Person whatsoever.

III.

PROVIDED That this Act shall not extend to the future Questioning of any Person or Persons however concerned in this Busines, or who had any Hand in the Tumults or disorderly procuring the Act aforesaid, any thinge herein conteyned to the contrary thereof notwithstandinge.

CHAPTER I. (1)

O. nu. 28.

AN ACT for repairing the Highwayes within the Countyes of Hertford Cambridge and Huntington

Recital of the bad State of the Roads in the Counties of Hertford, Cambridge, and Huntington ; and the ordinary Course appointed by the Lawes is not sufficient for the effectual repairing of the same.

Four Justices for each of the said Counties may appoint Nine Surveyors.

WHEREAS the auntient Highway and Poast Roade leading from London to Yorke, and soe into Scotland, and likewise from London into Lincolnshire lyeth for many miles in the Countyes of Hertford, Cambridge and Huntington, in many of which places, the Roade, by reason of the great and many Loades, which are weekly drawne in Waggons through the said places, aswell by reason of the great Trade of Barley and Mault, that cometh to Ware, and so is conveyed by water to the City of London, as other Carriages, both from the North parts, as also from the City of Norwich, Saint Edmunds Bury, and the Towne of Cambridge to London, is very ruinous, and become almost impassible, insomuch, that it is become very dangerous to all His Majesties Leige people that passe that way, And for that the ordinary course appointed by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme is not sufficient for the effectual repairing and amending of the same, neither are the Inhabitants through which the said Road doth lye of ability to repaire the same, without some other provision of moneys to be raised, towards the putting the same into good and sufficient Repayre, For remedy whereof and to the intent the said Highwayes, at or in the Countyes aforesaid, may bee forthwith effectually repaired and amended, and from time to time hereafter kept in good repayres, May it please your Majesty that it may bee enacted, And bee it enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall, and the Cōmons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That for the surveying, ordering, repairing, and keeping in Repaire of the said Highway in the Countyes aforesaid, Foure Justices of the Peace for each of the said severall and respective Countyes, dwelling next to the said Highwayes respectively, or any two of them, for the yeare, One thousand six hundred sixty three, and untill the Quarter Sessions then next ensueing, and from thenceforth the Justices of the Peace at the Sessions, to bee holden next after [Easter²] every yeare, for the said respective Countyes, from time to time, shall, and are hereby impowered, to nominate and appoint Nine sufficient and able persons, residing and inhabiting, within the said severall and respective Countyes, to bee Surveyors of the severall places, in the said Highway for the yeare, from thence next ensueing, The Justices of the Peace for the County of Hertford, to appoint Surveyors for the Highway lying in the said severall Townes and Parishes of the said County, and the Justices of the Peace in the County of Cambridge to appoint Surveyors for the severall Townes and Parishes, within their said County of Cambridge, And the Justices of Peace for the County of Huntington, to appoint Surveyors for the severall Townes and Parishes of the said County, And that the said Justices or Surveyors aforesaid, shall not act or doe any thing, towards the Repaires of the said Highwayes, but in their owne severall and respective Countyes, And that the said Justices in their severall Countyes, shall cause notice to bee given to the severall Surveyors soe chosen in writeing of their said choice, which said Surveyors and every of them having no lawfull impediment, to bee allowed by the said Justices, by whom they shalbee chosen, in manner as aforesaid, within one weeke next after such notice to them given of their Election, shall and are hereby required to meet and assemble themselves together, (that is to say) the Surveyors for the County of Hertford, in some convenient place within the County of Hertford, and the Surveyors chosen for the County of Cambridge in some convenient place within their County, and the surveyors chosen for the County of Huntington, in some convenient place within their said County, to bee appointed by the severall Justices of the said Countyes, at their severall Quarter Sessions, to the intent to veiw and Survey the said Highway and places aforesaid, and shall consider what Reparations shalbee needfull, for repairing of the severall Highwayes and places aforesaid And the said severall Surveyors, in their respective Countyes, shall provide Stones, Gravell, and other materialls and necessaryes, to bee used for and towards the repairing and amending the said Highway, at the places aforesaid, And the said Surveyors, or three or more of them, in their respective Countyes, being so mett and assembled, are hereby authorized to appoint a Receiver or Collector of Toll, and such other Officer and Officers as they shall finde necessary in their respective Countyes for carrying on the said Worke (with such moderate allowance, as shalbee thought fitt) to bee approved of by any two or more Justices of the Peace for the said respective County, for which such Officer is chosen, living neere to the said Highway or places aforesaid, or otherwise to bee removed, and other fitt person or persons, to bee chosen in his or their places, by the said Justices, in the said severall and respective Countyes, Justices or Surveyors to act in their severall Counties only.

Notice to Surveyors of being chosen, and Surveyors to meet within one Week after such Notice, for the Purpose of viewing and considering of Repairs.

Surveyors to appoint Collector and other Officers.

Allowance to such Officers to be approved and removed by Two or more Justices.

AND for the better effecting thereof Bee it Enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the said Surveyors, or any three or more of them, in their severall Countyes, shall from time to time, as they shall see cause, appoint and require, all and every person and persons, inhabiting within three miles of the places aforesaid, being within their severall and respective Countyes, who by any Law or Statute of this Realme now in force, is, or are chargeable, to finde any Wayne, or Cart, for the amending of the Highwayes and every other person and persons chargeable, to labour in the Highwayes, upon reasonable notice, to send his or their Cart or Wayne and Teame, or to come to labour in the said Highway at any the places aforesaid, within their respective Countyes, so furnished, as by the Lawes and Statutes of this Realme is directed, for the amending of other Highwayes when and soe often, as the said Surveyors for their said severall Countyes, or any three or more of them, shall thinke needfull and appoint, for which the said Surveyors, shall pay unto such Labourers, and to the Owners of such Teames Carts and Waynes, according to the usuall rate of the Countrey And in case any person soe charged, to send his or their Teame to worke as aforesaid, shall refuse or neglect soe to doe, such person so refusing or neglecting, shall forfeit Ten shillings for every day, that hee or they shall make such default, and every Labourer Eighteen pence, for every day, hee shall neglect or refuse to worke as aforesaid

CHAPTER II.

AN ACT for the Punishment of unlawfull cutting or stealing or spoiling of Wood and Underwood and Destroyers of young Timber Trees. Rot. Parl. 15 C. II. p. 2. nu. 1.

WHEREAS in one Act of Parliament made in the Three and fortieth yeare of the Raigne of the late Queene Elizabeth entituled An Act to avoid and prevent diverse misdemeanors in idle and lewd persons among other things it is enacted That all and every such lewd person and persons that shall cutt or spoyle any Woods or Underwoods Poles or Trees standing and their Procurer or Procurers Receiver or Receivers knowing the same, and being thereof lawfully convicted by his or their owne confession, or by the testimony of one sufficient Witnesse upon Oath before some one Justice of Peace, or other Head Officer of the County or place where such offence was committed shall give the partie or parties satisfaction for his or their Damages for the first faulte, And if such Offender or Offenders shall by such Justice of Peace or Head Officer be thought not able or sufficient, or if such Offender or Offenders doe not make such satisfaction as aforesaid That then the said Justice of Peace or Head Officer shall committ the said Offender or Offenders to the Constable or other inferiour Officer to receive the punishment of Whipping, as in the said Act more fully doth appeare, And whereas it is found by dayly experience especially in and about London and other great Townes where a great number of such idle and lewd persons doe shelter themselves that this Act hath not sufficiently prevented the said mischeife of cutting and spoyling Woods and Underwoods as was intended as well because the said offences are committed in such a close and clandestine manner that there is none Witnesse to them but such as are pertakers to the offence, as alsoe because the said punishment is too small for soe great a fault, which is not onely prejudiciall and hurtfull to the Owners of the said Woods but very mischievous and damageable to the Commonwealth Be it therefore enacted by the Kings most excellent Majestie by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the Authoritie of the same That from and after the fower and twentieth day of June next ensuing every Constable Headborough or any other person in every County Citty Towne Corporate or other place where they shall be Officers or Inhabitants shall and may by vertue of this present Act have full power and authoritie to apprehend or cause to be apprehended all and every person or persons they shall suspect haveing or carrying or any waies conv[e]ying any burthen or bundles of any kinde of Wood Underwood Poles or young Trees or Barke or Bast of any Trees or any Gates Stiles Posts Pales Railes or Hedgewood Broome or Furze, and by Warrant under the hand and seale of any one Justice of the Peace directed to any Officer, such Officer shall have power to enter into and search the Houses Outhouses Yards Gardens or other places belonging to the Houses of all and every person or persons they shall suspect to have any kinde of Wood Underwood Poles or young Trees or Barke or Baste of any Trees or any Gates Stiles Posts Pales Railes or Hedgewood Broome or Furze, and wheresoever they finde any such to apprehend or cause to be apprehended all and every person and persons suspected for the cutting and takeing of the same, and them and every of them as well those apprehended carrying or any waies conveying any kinde of Wood Underwood Poles or young Trees or Barke or Bast of any Trees or any Gates Stiles Posts Pales Railes or Hedgewood Broome or Furze as alsoe those in whose houses or other places belonging to them any such Wood Underwood Poles or young Trees, or Barke or Bast of any Trees, or any Gates Stiles Posts Pales Railes or Hedgewood Broome or Furze shall be found to carry before one Justice of the Peace of the same County Citty or Towne Corporate, And if the said person and persons soe suspected apprehended and carryed before the said Justices doe not then and there give a good account how he and they came by such Wood or Underwood Poles or young Trees or Barke or Baste of any Trees or Gates Stiles Posts Pales Railes or Hedgewood Broome or Furze by the consent of the Owner such as shall satisfie the said Justice, or else shall not within some convenient time to be sett them by the said Justice produce the partie or parties of whom they bought the same Wood Underwood Poles or young Trees or Barke or Bast of Trees Gates Stiles Posts Pales Railes or Hedgewood Broom or Furze or some other credible witnesse to depose upon Oath such sale of the said Wood Underwood Poles or young Trees or Barke or Bast of Trees Gates Stiles Posts Pales Railes or Hedgewood Broom or Furze (which Oath the said Justice hath hereby power to administer) That then the said person or persons soe suspected and not giveing such good account, nor produceing any such witnesse upon Oath to testifie the said sale as aforesaid shall be deemed and adjudged as convicted of the said offence of cutting and spoiling of the same Woods Underwoods Poles or young Trees or Barke or Bast of Trees Gates Stiles Posts Pales Railes or Hedgewood Broom or Furze within the meaneing of the said Statute of Queene Elizabeth and CHAPTER V.

Rot. Parl. 16 C. II. nu. 5. AN ACT to prevent the Disturbances of Seamen and others and to preserve the Stores belonging to His Majestyes Navy Royall.

Recital that divers Disturbances often happen about His Majesty's Offices,
Yards, and Stores.

Reasons for passing this Act.

Certain Officers may punish Disturbances by Seamen and others relating to the Navy Service by Fine or Imprisonment.

WHEREAS diverse fightings quarrellings and disturbances doe often happen in and about his Majestyes Offices Yards and Stores for his Majestyes Royall Navy and frequent differences and disorders are occasioned in the Office of his Majestyes Treasury of the Navy on Pay dayes in London Portsmouth and other places of meeting for the Service of the said Navy, and that either by the unreasonable turbulency of Seamen and others attending on or relating to that Service or their Creditors or by the rudenes of the Officers intrusted with his Majestyes Stores on Land, or in his Royall Shippes when they are questioned by the principall Officers and Cōmissioners of the said Navy either for negleckt or imbezilment of his Majestyes Provisions [Ammunitions³] or other Equipage of the Navy under their charge, And that not onely to the disturbance of the Peace but sometimes to the danger and hindrance of his Majestyes Service both in point of husbanding his Majestyes Revenue and alsoe in dispatch of the Shippes on which the Honour and Safety of his Majestie and [the⁴] Kingdome soe much depends Which Inconveniences require a speedier Remedy than the ordinary attendance on the Sessions of the Peace can give, the parties accused or offending being many times bound to Sea, And the principall Officers and Cōmissioners for want of authoritie to suppress such Insolencies and determine such Cases being necessitated to passe by many offences in which his Majestie might be righted if their necessary attendance on that important Service would permitt the prosecution of the Offenders before other ordinary Judicatures Bee it therefore enacted by the Kings most excellent Majestie with the advice and consent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall and Commons in Parlyament assembled and by authoritie of the same That the Treasurer Comptroller Surveyour Clerke of the Acts and the Cōmissioners of the Navy for the time being (⁵) have power and authoritie to examine and punish all such person and persons whom they upon their enquiry examination or on view in their presence shall finde hereafter to make or have made any disturbance fighting or quarrelling in the Yards Stores or Offices aforesaid at Pay-dayes, or on other occasions relating to the Navall Services in such manner as followeth that is to say That they or any two or more of them may punish any the said Offences by Fine Imprisonment or either of them, the Fine not exceeding Twenty Shillings and the Imprisonment not exceeding one weeke and have power in such cases to committ such persons to the next Gaole or to the custody of the Messenger or Messengers for the time being attendant on them, who respectively are to receive and detaine such person soe offending.

II.
May discharge Fine

AND it is further by the authority aforesaid enacted That the said Officers and Cōmissioners or any two or more of them (in cases where greater example or punishment is needfull) may alsoe binde the person and persons offending to their good behaviour with or without [Securities¹] as occasion shall be.

III.
May bind to good Behaviour.

AND whereas diverse of his Majestyes Stores and Ammunition pertaining to his Navy and Shipping or Service thereof are imbezilled and filched away It is by [the²] like authoritie enacted That the said principall Officers and Cōmissioners or any two or more of them by Warrant under their Hands and Seales have power in like manner to enquire and search for the same in all places as Justices of the Peace may doe in case of Felony and punish the Offenders by such Fine and Imprisonment as aforesaid, and cause the Goods to be brought in againe, And if the Offence be of such nature as doth require a higher and severer punishment, then that they any two or more of them may cōmitt fuch Offenders to the next Goale, or to the custodie of their Messenger or Messengers aforesaid till he or they soe offending enter into Recognizance with Surety or Suretyes according to the nature of the offence to appeare and answere to the same in his Majestyes Court of Exchequer or other Court where his Majesty shall question him or them for the same within one yeare following on processe duely served for that purpose on such Offender or Offenders.

IV.
May inquire concerning embezzling of

AN ACT for continuance of a former Act for repairing the Highways within the County of Hertford (¹)

Recital of 15 Car. II. c. 1.

and that divers
Gentlemen of the County had borrowed Money for repairing the said Roads;

and that certain Parts of the said Roads had been amended;

and that a certain Road in Hertfordshire was very ruinous.

The Toll for Hertfordshire
continued for 21 Years.

WHEREAS by a late Act of Parliament entituled An Act for repairing the Highways within the Countyes of Hertford Cambride and Huntington It was enacted That for the repairing of the auntient Highway and Poast road, leading from London to Yorke and from London into Lincolneshire, there should be a Toll paid at a certaine place in every of the said [severall and ²] respective Countyes, and for Hertfordshire at Wades Mill in the said County, Which said Toll so set is by the said Act to continue the [space ²] of eleaven yeares and no longer, with this Provision that if the Justices of the Peace at their Quarter Sessions in the respective Countyes shall before the expiration of eleaven yeares, adjudge the said Repayres to be sufficiently done, that from thenceforth it should cease And whereas divers Gentlemen within the County of Hertford have hartily set themselves to take care for the repairing of the said wayes within their County, And in order thereunto finding that Money could not be advanced by the Toll in so speedy a manner as to repayre those ruinous wayes, And that none would lend their Money on that Security did upon their owne creditts borrow Thirteen hundred pounds on Interest, to effect the worke intended by the said Act, which sūme accordingly is layd out together with such Money as hath proceeded from the Toll before mentioned in the repayre of the said Highway, by which meanes they have so amended the said Road, lying in that County, leading from London to Yorke, that they have made the same from a Road impassable, to be to the satisfaction of all that travell that way very passable and convenient, But by reason of the great sūme expended and layd out so borrowed as aforesaid, the Toll will not be sufficient to repayre the same within the yeares mentioned in the former Act with Interest for the same and to finish the said worke, And whereas there is a Road in the said County of Hertford that leads from London to Cambridge and so into Norfolke and likewise to Newmarkett and so into Suffolke, and other parts which goes out of the forementioned Road at the end of the Towne of Puckeridge, and so leadeth to Barly in the said County of Hertford, which is very ruinous and requires as much the helpe of the Toll in many places as the forementioned Road did May it therefore please Your Majesty that it be enacted And be it enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall and the Cōmons in this present Parliament assembled, and by Authority of the same That the Toll aforementioned to be taken at Wades Mill for the County of Hertford, that by the former Act was to continue for eleaven yeares and no longer, shall continue for the said County of Hertford for the space of One and twenty yeares and no longer the said Terme to cōmence from the time mentioned in the Act beforementioned, and the Money arising therefrom to be employed for the payment of the Debt aforesaid with Interest, and also for further repaire of the said Highway

II.
The former Commissioners to repair the said Road.

AND it is further enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That the persons impowered in the forementioned Act for the repayre of the Highways within the County of Hertford shall have the same power to repayre the said Highways leading from Puckeridge to Barly in the said County, as they have to repayre the Highway in the said County leading from London to Yorke, And that they shall and may apply such part of the Toll thereunto (having an equall care of both Highways) as they in their Judgments shall finde needfull, Any thing in the said former Act to the contrary notwithstanding,

² interlined.

AND whereas by the former recited Act a Toll was erected and set to be taken at the Towne of Caxton in the County of Cambridge, for and towards the repairing the Highways in the said Countie, The said Toll doth prove useles and will not answer the end for which the same was intended, by reason of the Inconveniency of the place where the same was sett Bee it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the said Toll be and is hereby removed from the said Towne of Caxton unto Arrington Bridge or the Towne of Arrington, as shall seeme most convenient, by the Justices of the Peace of the said County at their next Easter Generall Quarter Session of the Peace in the Countie aforesaid, And that the same Toll shall be taken and received at Arrington Bridge or Arrington Towne aforesaid, according to the Rates and by the same wayes and meanes as in the former Act was appointed and declared, And to be imployed to the uses purposes and intents therein also declared, Any thing to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding

III.

Cambridgeshire Toll removed from Caxton to Arrington Bridge.

PROVIDED alwayes That all and every person and persons who by Law are chargeable towards the repairing of the said Highways and places aforesaid shall still remaine so chargeable, and pay six pence in the pound yearly according to the true value of their Estates for and towards the repayre of the said Highways during the time of the continuance of this Toll, Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding

IV.
Persons chargeable to repair the said Highways are to pay their Rates.

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the Collector of this Toll, shall weekly account to the Receivor Generall for the whole Money received by virtue of this or the said former Act, And the next Justice of the Peace for the said County shall hereby have power to give an Oath to the said Collectors for the making of a true and perfect account of the Money so received, which said account so made shalbe returned into the next Generall Quarter Sessions to be held for the said County, by the Justice of Peace before whom such Oath was taken

V.
Collectors to account weekly.
Account to be on Oath, and returned to Quarter Sessions.

PROVIDED also That if at any tyme before the expiration of the said terme of one and twenty yeares the said Highways shall be well and sufficiently amended and repayred and so adjudged at the publique Quarter Sessions for the County of Hertford, And that such sūme or sūmes of Money as is already borrowed and layd out or shall be borrowed and layd out for the use aforesaid be repayd with Interest for the same, That from and after such Adjudication made and repayment of such Money so borrowed and layd out as aforesaid, the aforesaid Toll in the said County shall cease and determine.

VI.
The Toll to cease,
if the Money borrowed be sooner levied.

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case the Highways within the said County of Hertford shall be sufficiently amended, And that the Justices of the Peace at their Quarter Sessions shall fayle to make an Adjudication thereof, That then in such default of the said Justices of the Peace, It shall and may be lawfull to and for the Justices of Assize for the said County of Hertford to make such Adjudication, which being entred with the Clerke of the Assizes shall be esteemed a good Adjudication of the amendment of the said Highways, And that then and from thenceforth the said Debt being fully satisfyed to such as shall have advanced any Moneys thereupon, the said Toll shall cease and determine, Any thing in this Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

VII.
In default of Justices of Peace,
Judges of Assize may adjudge the Money to be levied, &c.

[AND whereas in this p̄sent Act it is provided That all and ev̄ie person and persons who by Lawe are chardgeable towards the repaying of the said High wayes and places aforesaid shall still remaine soe chardgeable and pay sixe pence in the pound yearly according to the true valewe of their Estates for and towards the repaire of the said High wayes during the time of the continuance of the said Toll Bee it therefore provided and enacted by the Authority aforesaid That the aforesaid summe of sixe pence in the pound shall bee payd unto the Thresurer appointed to receive the aforesaid Toll in like manner as the said Toll is appointed to bee payd by th'aforesaid Act And for default of paym^t of the said Rate of sixe pence in the pound in manner as aforesaid by the space of sixe dayes after demaund made That it shall and may bee lawfull for the Surveyo^{rs} of the High wayes for the time being And they are heereby impowred to levy the same by Distresse and sale of the Goods of the party refusing to pay the same accordingly, restoring the ov̄plus (if any bee) to the owner^r].

Parliament,
1 Jac. I. pr.

Recital that the said Thomas Lovell entered on the said Lands;

and that by the Neglect of the Assigns of the said Thomas Lovell the said Lands, and also other Lands in Holland, have been overflowed.

The said former Decrees and Act of Parliament

herein mentioned.

II.
Recital that the Earl of Berkshire,
Lord Andover, &c. have formerly held
and derived Title,
by Conveyances
from William late Earl of Exeter and Elizabeth late Countess of Exeter, in the said third Part of the Lands so allotted to the said Thomas Lovell, and other Proportions, and that the said Earl, &c. had expended great Sums of Money in draining, and are ready, as herein mentioned, to complete the same.
Edward Earl of Manchester and others named Undertakers to drain the Fens.

What they undertake to do.

The said Com^{rs} therefore well tendering the great proffitt that would arise to all persons concerned and to the Cōmonwealth in generall if the same might be drained At severall Sessions of Sewers held at Markett Deeping the Twentieth day of September in the said One and fortieth yeare of Queene Elizabeth and at Market Deeping aforesaid the Twentieth day of August in the Two and fortyeth yeare of the Raigne of the said Queene did ordaine and decree That the said Fennes and Marsh Grounds should be forthwith taken in hand to be drayned And that Thomas Lovell Esq^y (a man skilfull in workes of that nature) should be admitted to undertake the same under the Covenants therein mentioned, And in pursuance therof the said Thomas Lovell did undertake the said Workes and made some progress therein And afterwards one third part of the said severall Fennes were by the said Commissioners of Sewers sett out by Meets and Bounds and allotted to the said Thomas Lovell in recompence of his costs charges and endeavours applyed and expended therein, And after the said third part was by the [sd'] Com^{rs} of Sewers decreed to the said Thomas Lovell and his Heires in recompence of his said worke of drayning and of his charges and expences therein To have and to hold to the said Thomas Lovell his Heires and Assignes for ever And whereas by an Act of Parliament made at Westminster in the First yeare of King James entituled An Act for releife of Thomas Lovell Esq^y the above recited Decrees of Sewers were ratified and confirmed and the said third part of the said Fennis and Marsh Grounds as they were allotted and sett out by the said Cōmissers were by the said Act ordained enacted and established to be held by the said Thomas Lovell his Heires and Assignes for ever under the Provisoos Conditions and Appointments in the said Decrees and Act of Parliament mentioned and expressed as by the said Act of Parlyament and Decrees of Sewers more fully may appeare And whereas the said Thomas Lovell immediately after the makeing the said Act of Parlyament entered into the said Lands sett out and assigned as a third part of the said severall Fennes and by vertue of the said Decrees and Act of Parliament became seised therof and he and his Heires and Assignes have ever since till of late yeares held and enjoyed the same untill (by some neglect in the Assignes of the said Thomas Lovell and Fayler in the maintaining scowering and cleansing the said Banckes Rivers Sewers and other Workes necessary thereunto) occasioned by some differences arising betweene the said Assignes of the said Thomas Lovell and the Lords Owners and Commoners of the said Fennes about the enjoyment of some additionall recompence allotted to the said Assignes of the said Thomas Lovell by a subsequent Law of Sewers (made at Spalding) not onely the said Fennis and Marsh Grounds are returned into their auncient condition of being hurtfully surrounded and annoyed with Waters but a great and considerable part of some adjacent Townes of Holland have beene overflowed and laid desolate and many Habitacons and Families who formerly lived comfortably there, utterly ruined and destroyed thereby and yet continue in manifest danger in all seasons of wett weather and floods to fall into the said calamities Which great mischeife is by long and indubitable experience found to arise principally from severall imperfections in the said Decrees & Act of Parliament To the end therefore that the said Country being in its owne nature very rich and fertile and wherein the King and Queenes Ma^{tye} His Mother have large Possessions (and many auntient Families and Inhabitants their whole subsistance) may not longer remaine in such manifest danger of being utterly lost nor the Commonwealth continue longer deprived of those advantages which would arise from the performance of the said Workes Bee it enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majestye by and with the consent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall and Cōmons in this present Parlyament assembled and by the Authority of the same That the said Decrees and Act of Parliament above mentioned and every Clause Article and thing therein contained other then such as are herein after mentioned enacted ratified and confirmed shall be and are hereby repealed and made void to all intents and purposes whatsoever

AND in as much as the Right Hon^{ble} Thomas Earle of Berkshire and the Lady Elizabeth his Wife and Charles Lord Howard of Charlton cōmonly called the Lord Viscount of Andover their Eldest Sonne and Heire Apparent The Right Honourable Robert Lord Bruce Baron of Wharleton in the Kingdome of England and Earle of Elgin in the Kingdome of Scotland and the Lady Diana his Wife The Right Honourable Anne Countesse of Stamford and Thomas Lord Grey of Groby have formerly held and derived to themselves with Remainders over to severall other Persons by severall Conveyances from or under the Right Honourable William late Earle of Exeter and Elizabeth late Countesse of Exeter or one of them severall Interests in the said third part of the said Lands allotted to the said Lovell his Heires and Assignes and to other proportions by subsequent Decrees of Sewers and towards the drayning and maintaining therof they the said Right Honourable William late Earle of Exeter and Elizabeth late Countesse Dowager of Exeter under whom or one of whom they clayme, and Thomas late Earle of Exeter from whom the said William late Earle and Elizabeth late Countesse Dowager of Exeter derived their Title have expended severall great Summes of Money but have not soe fully effected the said Workes nor introduced those Benefitts & Advantages which were expected And for reason doe alleadge that the third part and subsequent Allotments are not recompence sufficient to answeere the charge of a more perfect performance of the said Worke but offer to proceed and perfectly to effect the same if they may have a sufficient recompence and compensation for their Hazard Charge and Paines therein Bee it enacted by the Authority aforesaid That Edward Earle of Manchester Lord Chamberlaine of His Majesties Household William Earle of Devonshire John Lord Berkley of Stratton Anchatill Grey Esquire Henry Grey Esquire and their Heires and Assignes and the Survivour of them shall bee and are hereby declared to be the Undertakers for the drayning of the said Fennis and every of them in trust to and for such person and persons and to such Intents and purposes as are herein after mentioned, And that within the space of Seaven yeares next ensuing they their Heires and Assignes shall and will at their proper Costs and Charges recover and make dry the said Fennes and every of them and make the same firme and depasturable for Catle at all times of the yeare except Two or three hundred Acres or therabouts in the said
